The 2010 Festival of the Arts' Top Chef Fund-Raiser

Who will reign supreme?

The 2nd annual St. John West Shore Hospital Festival of the Arts' Top Chef competition is already heating up. Four chefs from the area's best restaurants will once again vie for the title. In 2009, a sold-out crowd of more than 1,000 feasted on the competing chefs' creations and enjoyed the evening as a panel of celebrity judges (including Food Network's Ted Allen) named Chef Brandt Evans the 2009 Top Chef winner.

As you prepare for your 2010 budget, make plans to include a Top Chef sponsorship and have your company associated with the social event of 2010. And what a great networking opportunity too! Don't miss out. Proceeds to benefit St. John West Shore Hospital's Community Outreach and Wellness Ministry Programs.
